Two AMBEC clients to contend for National MED Week titles!

As always, MED Week winners are nominated for Regional MED Week titles, and if successful become contenders for the National MED Week titles in their respective categories.

This year, we are proud to announce that Enamul Hoque (Hoque & Associates), as well as Angela and George Brooks (Ebony Cactus Magazine) have been selected Regional winners and will be recognized in San Francisco on August 31, 2007. This automatically makes them nominees for the National MBDA MED Week title.

MBDA will be celebrating the 25th Anniversary of MED Week in Washington D.C. September 13-14, 2007.

Congratulations!
